

GOOD GRIEF! IT'S THE GREAT CORN MAZE, CHARLIE BROWN!
PEANUTS WORLDWIDE, THE MAiZE, INC., AND TRUNNELL'S FARM MARKET
CELEBRATE THE 50TH ANNIVERSARY OF "IT'S THE GREAT PUMPKIN, CHARLIE BROWN!"
WITH A CUSTOM-DESIGNED PEANUTS-THEMED MAZE

For the 2016 Fall Season, Trunnell's Farm Market will Host Custom-Designed Peanuts-Themed Maze in their Family Fun Acre Reaching More than 25,000 Visitors in the Tri-state.

In honor of the 50th Anniversary of one of the most beloved, quotable, and unforgettable Peanuts television specials of all time, It's the Great Pumpkin, Charlie Brown, Peanuts Worldwide and Trunnell's Farm Market are preparing a once-in-a-lifetime celebration: the creation of a unique corn maze, custom-designed to feature Peanuts themes and MORE!

The maze, which will feature The Great Pumpkin, Charlie Brown, will cover 4 acres at Trunnell's Family Fun Acre this fall. It will be open from September 10th – November 4th. In addition to the maze, Trunnell's Farm Market will host a special screening of It's the Great Pumpkin, Charlie Brown on Saturday, October 15th at dusk during their Moonlit' Harvest Fest & Flashlight Night. Fireworks on the Farm will follow the Movie. The viewing of this all time classic on the farm will be FREE with admission to the Family Fun Acre. Families will also be able to rent their own private bonfire sites to enjoy the evening.

The venue will also incorporate The Great Pumpkin artwork into other areas of their venue, providing the perfect setting for visitor photo ops with the Peanuts characters. During The Great Pumpkin Festival on Saturday, October 8th the Trunnell's will be hosting the Great Pumpkin Pageant at 9:30am for ages 0-8 years old. You can register your child at www.trunnellsfarmmarket.com. Families can also enjoy the all time favorite, The Great Pumpkin Hunt, during this Festival on Saturday, October 8th and Sunday October 9th at 2:30 pm. Kids grab your baskets and be ready to hunt for miniature pumpkins!

Trunnell's Farm Market was chosen as one of the 90 farms in North America by Peanuts Worldwide to create a Great Pumpkin maze this year. Collectively, the farms—which are part of The MAiZE network and span North America in two countries and 39 states, from California to New York, Canada to Florida—will reach more than 3.5 million visitors during the Fall season.

"The Great Pumpkin and cornfield mazes are two of the world's greatest fall traditions, eagerly anticipated by fans every single year, and we're so excited to bring them together for this landmark anniversary," said Jill Schulz, daughter of Peanuts creator Charles M. Schulz. "As we prepare to celebrate the 50th Anniversary of It's the Great Pumpkin, Charlie Brown, it's only fitting that we should find a tribute that's both joyful and visually compelling, just as my father's characters have been for more than 65 years."

"We're thrilled to work with Peanuts Worldwide and The MAiZE, Inc. as we customize our corn maze to celebrate It's the Great Pumpkin, Charlie Brown," said Kevin Trunnell, co-owner of Trunnell's Farm Market. "Corn mazes are all about providing a fun and interactive experience for our visitors—even the adults feel like kids again! And that's exactly what Peanuts does: Aren't we all kids again when we see Snoopy and Charlie Brown? This is the perfect match of holiday traditions."

"It's been a huge pleasure for us to collaborate with Peanuts Worldwide to design our unique, custom corn maze," said co-owner Julie Trunnell. "We're all fans of Peanuts and the Great Pumpkin, and we're delighted to honor the 50th Anniversary by having the Great Pumpkin Maze to share with all our guests this season. Admission to the Trunnell's Family Fun Acre & Corn Maze is only $9.95 and includes 30+ attractions. For more information, go to www.trunnellsfarmmarket.com or call 270-733-2222.
